1934

Milton L Taubkin, DDS, is still “around.”

1948

David I. Gold, DDS, is happily retired and resides for six months in North Palm Beach, FL and the other six months in Stamford, CT. Dr. Gold and his wife enjoy time with their three children.

Charles H. Meinhold, DDS, is still straightening the teeth of many inner city kids in Rochester, NY. He is also busy volunteering for Habitat for Humanity, Kiwanis, Seneca Zoo and various church projects. Dr. Meinhold proudly reports that he is still skiing at 76.

1951

Gilbert H. Cullen, DDS, has organized a continuing education program in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico for the past ten years.

1957

William R. Patteson, DDS, was recently elected a regent of the International College of Dentists at the American Dental Association's annual meeting in Kansas City. As a regent, Dr. Patteson will oversee activities in Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Washington DC, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands and the United States Army, Navy and Air Force. He lives in Towson, MD with his wife and has four children and eight grandchildren.

Luis A. Toro-Lloveras, DDS, serves as president of the Puerto Rico Society of Orthodontists through 2002. He is also a delegate of the Middle Atlantic Society of Orthodontists and the American Association of Orthodontists House of Delegates.

1961

Garr T. Phelps, DDS, is still in private practice at 65 years of age!

1962

Henry A. Fischer, DDS, was elected president of the bipartisan American Security Council (ASC). According to Dr. Fischer, the ASC promotes America's national security interests, peace with freedom, and a global leadership role for the United States. Dr. Fischer reports that he is very honored to serve as the ASC's new president.

1964

J. Roedel Jaeger, DDS, acted as a story consultant to the Baltimore Magazine in a June 2002 article about the best dentists in the Baltimore area. Dr. Jaeger is a trustee of the MSDA and has participated in numerous other dental associations, including the North East Regional Board of Dental Examinations, and the American Association of Dental Examiners, and the Baltimore County Dental Association. He has been in private practice in Perry Hall, MD since 1966.

1967

David Wands, DDS, was surprised with a 60th birthday party at his home. He and his friends celebrated this happy occasion with a great party and a menu with all his favorite foods. To top off the event, Dr. Wands blew out all the candles on the “Fish Cake!”

1968

Edward J. Taggart, Jr., DDS, retired as full-time faculty at UCSF School of Dentistry in July 2001. He continues to volunteer in the postgraduate periodontology clinic one day a week and see private patients two days a week in San Francisco.

1969

Paul A. Bowman, DDS, announces that his son, Christian, a 2001 graduate of Temple Dental School, joined his practice upon graduation.

1971

Jospeh B. Pino, Jr., DDS, retired three years ago. He now travels a great deal, and one of his trips was to Italy.

1972

Jeffrey S. Cooper, DDS, completed five years on the graduate faculty at UMSNJ. Last year marked the birth of his first grandchild in July.

David Vine, DDS, notified the Dental School that his book, Understanding First Class Dental Care — A Human Interest Story is now available for purchase. The book took 31/2 years to write and devotes several pages to his student experience at BCDS. Email dvine@davidvivedentist.com for more information.

1973

James H. Howard, DDS, retired from the United States Air Force in 1995. Presently, Dr. Howard is Associate Dean for Clinical

Services and Director of Clinics at Creighton University School of Dentistry, in Omaha, NE.

1974

Barbara J. Steinberg, DDS, is a Professor of Surgery and Medicine at the Medical College of Pennsylvania Hahnemann School of Medicine. She lectures extensively on treatment of the medically compromised patient and on women's health.

1975

Ronald Carter, DDS, acted as a story consultant to the Baltimore Magazine in a June 2002 article about the very best dentists in the Baltimore area. Dr. Carter is currently the President of the Maryland State Dental Association and serves on the executive board of the Baltimore City Dental Society.

1979

John K. Brooks, DDS, and his wife Ilene, recently celebrated their son Ryan's Bar Mitzvah. John and Ilene celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in June.

1980

Frederick Hains, DDS, is involved in research as an assistant clinical professor at Boston University Goldman School of Dental Medicine.

Mark R. Miller, DDS, and his wife, Pouran, announce the arrival of their daughter, Bracha Mirium Miller. Bracha was born May 2001.

1983

Harold C. Peeples, ADE, graduated from the Jack C. Massey Graduate School of Business at Belmont University in Nashville, TN in August 2001 with a MBA in Healthcare Management.

1985

Stanley Cohen, DDS, is happy to announce the opening of his new office in the new medical office building of Montgomery General Hospital in Olney, MD.

Linda M. Kaste, DDS, joined the faculty of the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Dentistry in the fall 2001. She is an associate professor and director of the pre-doctoral curriculum in dental public health. She is also an adjunct associate professor in the Division of Community Health Sciences of the School of Public Health. Dr. Kaste was selected as a faculty scholar in the University of Illinois at Chicago Great Cities Institute this year.

Sheryl L. Ernest Syme, RDH, MS '93, is a member of the Oral Cancer subcommittee, which is a part of the statewide 2003 Maryland Comprehensive Cancer Control Plan. This is the first time that the Maryland Cancer Plan contains a separate committee devoted entirely to oral cancer.

Bradley Trattner, DDS, ADE '90, and his wife Lisa, announce the birth of their baby girl, Amanda, in January 2001.

Kristine Gargiulo, DDS, announces the birth of her third child, Michael Anthony, who joins his sisters, Mary (4) and Krissy (3).
