Continuum of Quality Care: Health Outcomes for persons with Neurodevelopmental Disabilities

Course developed in cooperation with and with support from Wisconsin State office of Health and Family Services, American Academy of Developmental Medicine and Dentistry, American Academy of Family Physicians and Special Olympics International.

Mark L. Wagner, D.M.D.
Professor Emeritus and former Vice President, Health Programs of Special Olympics, International

of Hours _7__
Lectures _2__ (Mediasite Lectures Captured)
E-Lessons _3__
Small Groups __x_
Quiz/Exam __x_ Electronic assessment--Blackboard/Questionmark ___x__
Total Hours _8__ (Seven-eight hrs. minimum=one-half credit; 15 hrs. maximum=1 credit)

Class Size Limited: 20 Students

Course Description:
This course is designed to provide students background and knowledge of the challenges to care, conditions and health status of individuals, (children and adults) with intellectual and neurodevelopmental disabilities. This will be accomplished by dvd and discussion and will be divided in to Introduction, Background on ID/DD. Challenges to Care and Oral Health Conditions, and finally two case presentations; one adolescent 14 years and one adult 45 years.
This course can be offered on line via Mediasite or via a DVD program made available to each student.

Prerequisites: None

Method of Evaluation: __x_ Small group discussions of electronic material
__X__ Other - Please define
_Interactive self quiz _____
Method of Grading: Pass/fail

Lecture Outline

I. Introduction to Continuum of Quality Care Dentistry to Improve health outcomes for individuals with Neuro-developmental Disorders and Intellectual Disabilities Terminology and definitions

A. Five essential concepts of developmental medicine
B. Historical perspective of ND?DD
C. United States Policy on ND/DD
D. Employment
E. Health Care Issues

II. Logan Case Study
III. Ronnie Case Study
IV. Interactive Quiz

Schedule

Monday, 11/16/09, 3-5 pm, room 5105 (Lecture)
Monday, 11/23/09, 1-3 pm, room 5105 (Lecture)
Monday, 11/30/09, 1-3 pm, room 5105 (Lecture)
Monday, 12/07/09, 1-2 pm, (E-Lesson)
Monday, 12/14/09, 1-2 pm, (Interactive Online Quiz)