

ELECTIVE TITLE: Facial Pain Diagnosis – Cases, Cases, Cases

Name(s) of Faculty presenting elective: Edward G. Grace, DDS, MA

Small Groups 7

Total Hours 7

Class Size Limited: 4-6 Students

Location: Faculty Practice conference room

Educational Purpose of the Course - Familiarize students with a variety of facial pain causes and diagnostic criteria. The course will involve 20--30 different case based presentations with students determining the diagnosis based on criteria discussed in the first session.

Prerequisites: None.

Method of Evaluation:         Classroom Attendance, participation.
    Small group discussions of electronic material

Method of Grading:        Pass/fail