

Process to Assure Pre-Doctoral Courses are Evidence-Based

Annual Cycle of Review

As part of the annual Course Audit, course directors review their respective course syllabi and review current EBD course content, and the need for changes/ updates/ modifications. Submitted annually by August 1st.

http://www.dental.umaryland.edu/media/sod/academic-affairs/CourseAuditForm_Final.pdf

Departmental/ Division critical appraisal of EBD Course Content:

- Review with Pre-doctoral Director
- Review at Department/ Division Retreat
- Other Department/ Division review mechanism

Implementation (didactic and/or clinical) in the respective preclinical and clinical courses

Actions are implemented by course directors.

Pre-Doctoral Directors Committee

Review/approval (as necessary)

Department/ Division Evidence Based Dentistry literature repository

Formulary and Best Practices Committee

- If new material or equipment will be required

Clinical Science Council

Curriculum Committee

- Content change greater than 20%
- Addition/removal of competency exam
- Change in credit hours

Pre-Doctoral Directors Draft

5-20-17

FINAL

