

Design a Label

In 1892, Dr. Washington Sheffield and his son were the first to put toothpaste into the collapsible tube we are all familiar with today.

The practice of decorating the tube with a brand name and colorful decorations and images has continued to this day.

Now it is your turn to become the next Dr. Sheffield, and create your own brand of toothpaste in a tube, starting by designing your tube and the box it comes in!

